

Draft Agenda
ECET2 Maine 2018
August 9th and 10th, 2018
Colby College

Themes:
Elevating our Profession
Elevating our Practice
Elevating ALL Students

8:30- 9:30 Registration and Check-In to Dorms-Lobby of Diamond Center

Donated library books dropped off. Participants will be able to nominate a deserving elementary school in Maine to receive this donation.

(Get yourself on Twitter at the Social Media Lounge. Photos of Why I Teach.)

9:30- 9:50 Welcome, Goals, Raffle-Auditorium in Diamond Center

9:50-10:10 Cultivating the Calling #1: Angela McLaughlin, Grade 2 Teacher, Asa Adams School: Let's Cure Cancer~ Reflecting on our responsibility to believe in all students

Quick Twitter Chat: How can sharing our calling be an inspiration to our colleagues back in our own schools?

10:10-11:00- Group Activity (Networking)

11:00-11:50 Colleague Circle #1 (Problem of Practice focused on the three themes of the convening)

11:50-12:30 Lunch (Networking time. MSTOYA meeting.)

12:30 to 1:45 Breakout Session #1

Teacher-led Breakout Sessions (Choices will be made on site, but sessions are related to our three themes: Elevating the Profession, Elevating our Practice, Elevating ALL students) Diamond Center Classrooms, Teachers will choose from roughly seven presentations.

1:45-2:00 Break

2:00-3:15 Breakout Session #2

Teacher-led Breakout Sessions (Choices will be made on site, but sessions are related to our three themes: Elevating the Profession, Elevating our Practice, Elevating ALL students) Diamond Center Classrooms. Teachers will choose from roughly seven presentations.

Quick Twitter Chat: How can teacher-led breakout sessions bring quality PD to your school/district?

3:15-4:15 Colleague Circle #2 Continue work on problems of practice.

4:15-5:15 Free Time for Settling into dorms/Networking

5:15-6:15 Reception and Networking behind Diamond Center

6:15 Maine BBQ and Ice Cream Party!

8:00-9:00 Evening activity or activities:

Draft Agenda
Colby College, Waterville, Maine ECET2ME 2018
Diamond Center
Day 2

Full Breakfast for overnight guests (Dana Cafeteria)

8:45 Announcements for the Day/Raffle/ECET2 Shark Tank Plan

Quick Twitter Chat: How can adding moments of celebration support teachers in your school/district?

9:05 Cultivating the Calling #2 Jessica Madsen, Assistant Principal, Everyday Heroes

9:25-10:40 Teacher-Led Breakout Sessions #3

Teacher-led Breakout Sessions (Choices will be made on site, but sessions are related to our three themes: Elevating the Profession, Elevating our Practice, Elevating ALL students)
Diamond Center Classrooms

10:40-11:00 Break/Coffee/Snacks/Dorm Key checkout in Diamond Lobby

11:00 Cultivating the Calling #3 Sydney Chaffee, National Teacher of the Year, 2017 ~ How can teacher leaders be brave enough to work towards social justice?

11:25- 12:15 Colleague Circles #3 Continue working on problems of practice.

As wrapping up Colleague Circle-Quick Twitter Chat: How can the Problems of Practice Protocol enhance the work at your school/district?

Lunch: Finish any work with your Colleague Circle that needs to be completed by 1:00

1:00 pm Gallery: Colleague Circle Problems/Solutions -feedback from participants on sticky notes

1:45 Colleague Circle #4: Review the feedback received. Everyone complete a Commitment Statement on a postcard which states how they will bring ECET2 back to their school/district

2:15 Finale: Educator Shark Tank

Three “pitches” for how to bring ECET2 back to their school or district.
Winning “pitch” receives a $500 grant to bring ECET back to their school/district.

Twitter poll: Participants vote via Twitter and Shark Tank Grant Award Winner Announced!

Quick Twitter Chat: How could an Educator Shark Tank be used back at your local school/district?

Announcement of Post-convening opportunities

Closing, final raffles, contact hours. Drawing for library books.

Departure: 3:30